

Requirements and Guidelines for Membership on the CSCA Breeder Referral List And Breeders Wishing to List Clumber Spaniel Litter

Requirements:

- I. Breeder Referral List members must be member(s) in good standing of the CSCA for a minimum of three (3) years.
 - A. Payment of a $25.00 one time non-refundable fee payable to CSCA
 - B. Have bred at least two (2) litters greater than twelve (12) months apart
 - C. Have placed at least a title on two (2) Clumber Spaniels
 - D. Provided one (1) letter of recommendation from a buyer of a puppy from a previous litter

- II. Breeder(s) listing a litter must be a member(s) in good standing of the CSCA for a minimum of one (1) year.
 - A. Payment of a $10.00 non-refundable fee to CSCA for listing each litter for maximum of 9 months.

Guidelines for those on the CSCA Breeder Referral List and for Breeders Listing a Litter:

- 1) Breeder(s) are reminded that they have agreed to adhere to the current CSCA Guidelines for Breeders and of Owners of Clumber Spaniels and the Code of Ethics.
- 2) Breeder(s) of litter agrees to cooperate with CSCA Rescue & Placement (if need arises) in assisting with placement of any Clumber produced from a litter placed on this list.
- 3) Breeder(s) have an obligation to treat those contacting them for information about Clumber Spaniels in a fair, honest and courteous manner.
- 4) It is recommended that the sire and dam be at least 18 months of age before breeding. Therefore, if either the sire or dam is less than 24 months, it is recommended that preliminary hip x-rays, Penn hip evaluation, or veterinary hip x-ray evaluation has been done.
- 5) When requested by prospective buyers, a copy of the documents supporting the following health evaluations are available to the prospective buyer:
 - A. Hip Dysplasia
 - B. CERF evaluation (eyes)
 - C. PDP1 testing
 - (a.) Testing is necessary when either the sire and/or dam is/are a carrier(s).
 - (b.) Testing is not necessary if the sire and dam are the result of PDP1 clear litters / breeder should obtain documentation of PDP1 clear status and copies available to prospective buyer upon request.

Adhering to these guidelines is viewed as being in the best interest of the Clumber Spaniel breed.
