Additional information

Regular Membership: Regular membership shall be open to all persons 18 years of age or older who are in good standing with the American Kennel Club and who subscribe to the purpose of the Club.

Household Membership: Household memberships shall be open to two adults, 18 years of age and older living in the same household. Each individual is permitted one vote.

Associate Membership: Associate membership shall be open to all US citizens eighteen years of age or older who subscribe to the purposes of the Club and who wish to assist the Club in pursuing its objectives. No sponsors will be required so it is open to individuals who are unable to secure the sponsorship to two CSCA members required for Regular membership. Associate members cannot vote (not counted in a quorum) and are not eligible for election as an officer, director or AKC Delegate. They may not be added to the Breeder Referral List and they may not sponsor applicants for membership or chair committees. Associate members will not receive USPS correspondence. Associate members may choose to change to Regular membership at the next renewal period provided all eligibility is met.

Junior Membership: Open to all persons 10 through 17 years of age, who subscribe to the purposes of this Club. Junior members may convert to regular membership upon reaching their 18th birthday. Junior members cannot vote and are not eligible for election as an officer, director or AKC Delegate.

Membership is open to both residents of the United States and persons who reside outside the United States, regardless of citizenship; however, members who are not residents of the United States are not eligible to vote unless they were admitted to membership prior to the adoption of these Bylaws, as amended by the membership and their approval by the AKC in or about 2010/2011. Members who were admitted to membership prior to the adoption of these Bylaw, as amended by the membership and their approval by the AKC in or about 2010/2011 are eligible to vote, but are not eligible as an officer, director or AKC Delegate.
