This year's theme:

Holidays!

SOOOOO – to make this the most exciting event ever we will need:

Funds: (yep, it always comes down to money, doesn't it?) – donations of any size greatly appreciated! Donors will get a shout-out in the National edition of the Chronicle! Details on request.

Helpers: folks willing to monitor 'stations', be announcers, award prizes, canine traffic coordinators

Participants! – your clumber pal won't be along with you? No problem! Plenty of 'loaners' to go around! Of course, if your best bud IS along, bring him/her for an afternoon of fun and camaraderie.

Details as they develop. Questions? Or donations? Contact either of the co-chairs: Norma Simpson clumber1@hughes.net or Susan Field tooney1@optonline.net
