

Clumber Spaniel Club of America Code of Ethics

Revised by CSCA Officers and Board of Directors 3/28/2008

The purpose of the CSCA Code of Ethics is to ensure that every member acts in the best interest of the future of the Clumber Spaniel breed.

1. All members of CSCA have an obligation to protect the interests of the Clumber Spaniel and the CSCA. Members will always conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively upon the breed and CSCA.
2. No member shall engage in misleading or false advertising, nor malign nor give false statements regarding other owners' or breeders' dogs, breeding practices, or person. Members shall always show good sportsmanship and in all matters relating to any canine event, the fancy and Clumber Spaniels in particular. Members shall always be honest and conduct themselves with integrity.
3. Members at all times shall maintain a high standard of health and care for their Clumber Spaniels. Members shall comply with all relevant AKC rules and regulations.
4. It is the obligation of those experienced in the breed to offer advice and assistance to less experienced fanciers in a helpful and courteous manner.
5. Members have an obligation to respond to all questions willingly and truthfully from the public on the standard and proper care of the Clumber Spaniel.
6. No CSCA member shall engage in wholesaling litters or individual sales or consignments of puppies or adults to pet shops, catalogue houses, auctions of any kind, or other commercial establishments, or knowingly sell to others that may engage in these activities, nor shall they give stud dog service to same. No CSCA member shall donate puppy or adult Clumber Spaniels or give them as prizes in contests, raffles, or any fund-raising event, no matter how charitable.
7. Violations of the Code of Ethics shall be considered prejudicial to the best interests of the Club/or the breed. Complaints shall be filed and handled pursuant to the disciplinary proceedings set forth in Article VI of the CSCA Constitution and By-laws.

Approved March 28, 2008